

My area does not yet receive local weather/traffic via XM radio but I expect to be able to get that info soon. I love everything about XM satellite radio from content variety to playlists and I don't want to see the service minimized in any way, shape, or form.